

The Chase-Monson Co.

October Dress Goods.

Are having their early Autumnal Opening this week. Rich fabrics from Germany, France, England and Saxony are here, draped gracefully on forms under skylight. Stuffs of Mohair, Worsted and Silk combined. Novelities of curious and captivating weave, and decorated with loops and bunches of tinted wool and tiny curls of shiny Mohair. Plain Fabrics and Plaids, all new, choice and attractive.

Here's one of them:
Five colors in cloth effect, with narrow Boucle stripe of knotted mohair, at 85c. a yard.

Silks

Exquisite fancies for Waists, Dresses, Skirts and Trimming. Unique combinations of coloring in stripes. Stripes single and cluster. Plaids, checks, shaded. Every possible twist that shuttle can weave, are posing here for your inspection.

Note this as a guide:
White ground Taffeta Silks, with beautiful Dresden figures, at $1.50 a yard.

THE MAMMOTH CAKE

Forty Thousand People

to be Fed Free!

THE

Largest Cake in the World

Is Now Being Out and Served at

The Boston Grocery.

Cash Prizes to Guessers.

The MAMMOTH CAKE is on exhibit

this week at our store.

This CAKE is a marvel in size and beauty.

It was decorated by an artist in

Cake making and is fit for a queen's wedding.

Thousands came yesterday to see it,

and the tens of thousands who will come this week will never forget the Mountain of Cake, topped by the banner,

reading

"Swift's Cotosuet Did It."

A slice of the Cake is served free to everyone who comes, and young ladies will register your guesses on the Cake.

Twelve CASH PRIZES will be given by SWIFT & COMPANY to the twelve ladies guessing nearest the weight of the Cake.

The Prizes will be awarded at the end of exhibit.

There is not an ounce of butter in this Cake. It was shortened with

"SWIFT'S COTOSUET" to show the people of New Haven that Cotosuet will make better Cake than butter, and it costs one-third less.

Don't miss seeing the BIG CAKE at

N. A. FULLERTON'S

Boston Grocery,

926 Chapel Street, corner Temple.

Entertainments.
MYPERION.
Clay Fitzgerald and her famous winks have been counted. She winks just 267 of them at every performance of "The Foundling," which comes to the Myperion theater next Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee. Her winks, blinks and high jinks were all the rage of last winter's theatrical season in New York. They are all feints on Clay's soul-thrilling dance, which is not only alluring, but a very graceful performance. She appears in "The Foundling" with the original New York company, Charles Frohman, manager. "The Man Upstairs," by Augustus Thomas, a one-act farce, will precede "The Foundling" as a curtain raiser. Sale of seats opens Wednesday. Prices 75 cents and $1.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Sheridan and Flynn's City Sports opened a three nights' engagement to a large audience last evening. The leading attraction are the Nelson sisters, the well known gymnasts, who have added a new feature to their already pleasing performance. There are also a young woman who take part in the opening of the program in a comedy entitled "Murphy's Reception."
The olio is opened by William Hall in a number of pleasing songs. Others on the bill are Larry Smith and Mamie Champion in a comedy sketch; Alice Wren and Minnie Daily in songs and dances; Carmanell and Lucille in a novel musical sketch, and Makie and Walker in character songs.

There is also a well arranged ballet in which Miss Lillian Larcaine in her wonderful grotesque dancing is introduced.
The performance is brought to a close by a one-act comedy burlesque entitled "A Hot Night, or the Elopement." The costumes are very handsome.
There will be a matinee to-day and to-morrow and the usual evening performances. Matinee prices 10 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents.
There will be a well presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. "Old Glory" is written around an incident which has now become a part of our country's history—the threatened war between America and Chile some years ago, which was only averted by the diplomatic energy and force shown by the then secretary of state, James G. Blaine. The production is an artistic and historical one from every point of view. "Old Glory" is an American success. Matinee prices 10 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents, from which there will be no departure during the season.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.
The immense audiences at Poli's Wonderland theater yesterday, enjoyed a real novelty in the marvelous rat charming specialty presented by Adolf Popper; the applause bestowed clearly indicated that. It was a sight never before witnessed in New Haven as the beautiful white rats, soothed into tamed and affectionate creatures by Mr. Popper's magic flute, clambered onto his person, nestling like tamed doves in every conceivable part of his clothes. When Mr. Popper retired from the stage at the close of his novel sensational act, there were one hundred rats of all sizes and degrees clinging on and about him and showing all the fondness of a pet dog for their master. Mr. and Miss Lawrence presented a specialty that was new also to the vaudeville stage in their "Faustline Up to Date," which is in effect an epitomized version of Goethe's immortal "Faust," with as much of the original music and lines as can be crowded into a twenty-two minutes act, the whole being presented with the elaborate scenic and electric effects that have made Goethe's masterpiece so immensely popular. Other entertaining specialties were presented by the La Moynie brothers, Frank Moran, Lester and McAvoy, Canfield and Carlton, Lew Randall, and the Clayton sisters. Performance every afternoon and evening; afternoon prices for ladies 10 cents, for others 10, 15 and 20 cents, which are also the evening prices for all.

L. O. O. F. CELEBRATION.
A Notable Event for Fairfield County Odd Fellows—New Haven Speakers.
Rippowam lodge, L. O. O. F., of Stamford, celebrates its fiftieth anniversary to-day.
Pequonnock, Harris and Arcanum lodges of Bridgeport will take part in the celebration. The exercises will include a parade, banquet in the armory and mass meeting at the town hall in the evening.
In addition to an historical address by W. W. Gillespie here will be an address by Hon. Samuel Fessenden, who is also a member of Rippowam lodge, on this subject; "The Adaptability of Our Order to the Circumstances with which We are Surrounded." The grand master of the state, David R. Ailing of New Haven, will speak of "The Order in Our State," and will be followed by Hon. James Bishop of New Haven, whose subject will be "The Order at Large." William H. Marigold of Bridgeport, being grand treasurer, will speak of "The Ability of Our Order to Carry Out Its Promises." Rev. R. P. H. Vail will speak on "The Harmony Between Benevolent Societies and Christian Principles." I. P. Taft of Puritan lodge will speak for "Sister Lodges." John S. Davenport, past grand regent of the Royal Arcanum, will speak on this subject: "The Fellowship of Kindred Societies." Grand Secretary Frederick Botsford of New Haven will tell what should be expected of the old and young members, while Frederick S. Hunt, P. G. M., will give his opinion as to what should result from the celebration. President Ware of the Odd Fellows' home will have this subject: "A Home as the Logical Outcome of Our Teaching."

Three of the five men who constituted the charter members are still living, J. D. Warren, Colonel Lorenzo Meeker and W. H. H. Hollock. The other two, both of whom are dead, were ex-Governor William T. Minor and William H. Buxton.

Miners Get an Advance.
Brazil, Ind., Sept. 30.—The block coal operators and miners met here to-day to arrange a new schedule of mining rates. The operators granted the miners' demand of 70 cents per ton and work in the mines shall be resumed at once. A prominent operator said the advance was granted the miners in the fact of a rumor that Ohio and Illinois operators would not grant an increase to the miners, and that a strike would be called in those states and probably several others soon.
